

THE FULL BLOOM FASHION SHOW MAGAZINE

The Full Bloom Fashion Show Magazine is the official companion to the Vision Resource Center's signature event, designed to guide guests through the evening while celebrating the heart, mission, and artistry behind the show.

Inside the magazine, guests will find the complete program for the night, including runway segments, special features, and acknowledgments. Editorial content explores the Full Bloom concept in depth, offering insight into how the theme reflects growth, empowerment, and the experiences of people who are blind or visually impaired.

Readers will also discover a detailed overview of the Vision Resource Center: its mission, impact, and the essential programs made possible through community support. A personal note from the Executive Director, emphasizing the significance of the event and the stories it uplifts.

The magazine highlights the models of the evening with member bios that share their passions, journeys, and what stepping onto the runway means to them. It also features a curated look at the artwork on display and available for purchase, including artist spotlights and descriptions of the pieces that help raise funds for the VRC.

Additionally, the magazine includes advertising placement opportunities, another meaningful way for local businesses, partners, and supporters to invest in the VRC's mission and demonstrate their commitment to accessibility, empowerment, and community.
